

NEW YORK

N

AUGUST 2007

night spots
BY SARAH BRUNING

Modern Twist Outfitted with oversized leather club chairs, low candlelit tables, high-backed bar stools and sleek granite counters, The Emery Bar (above) exudes timeless elegance while maintaining a contemporary edge. The upscale lounge is awash in shades of platinum, copper and pomegranate and welcomes business travelers and local professionals seeking a relaxing post-work respite. While exchanging cheery anecdotes with guests, genial bartenders expertly mix classic cocktails, including gimlets (Bombay Sapphire gin, lime) and Manhattans (Canadian Club whiskey, sweet vermouth, lemon), and modern masterpieces such as the Champagne Mélange (Chambord, Moët & Chandon White Star Champagne, fresh raspberries). A number of reds, whites, sparkling wines and ales quench the thirst of oenophiles and beer enthusiasts. Crowd: Generation X to Baby Boomers (30-65) » The Emery Bar, 125 E. 50th St., 715-2500